

Amazing Jerusalem Boutique Day Tour from Tel Aviv

FAQ - Frequently Asked Questions v02-20230908

Do I need to bring my passport?

Yes, because we had requests to see a passport from security personnel for going up the Temple Mount.

Technically you need to have a legal ID with you at all times.

What is the dress code?

The dress code for visiting holy places:

Women: shoulders and head covered (with scarf), legs must be completely covered, no leggings (otherwise you get a loan dress and or scarf at the Temple Mount).

Men: shoulders covered, long pants.

Shoe advice: shoes with a rubber sole. Flip flops are not recommended.

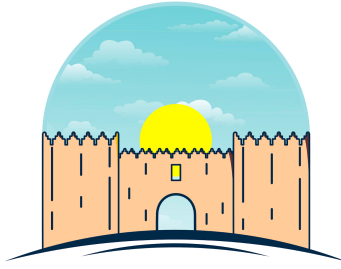

What time are we back in Tel Aviv?

Expect to be back at or close to your drop off location between 6.00 and 7.00pm

Is lunch included?

Food and drinks are not included, if you want to join lunch, it costs NIS 60 (about $17,50) for a drink and a shared table with pita bread, humus, falafel and many salads, which all will be refilled when empty.

FAQ - Frequently Asked Questions v02-20230908

Can I bring luggage?

You can come with your small carry-on luggage, one per person, to a pick up point in both Tel Aviv or Jerusalem.

Do NOT bring more or larger pieces unannounced, you need permission. If you receive a positive confirmation to bring more, you pay NIS 100 per piece in cash to the driver .

The luggage will be in the bus with the driver all day.

At the end of the day you can take your luggage from the bus.

We end the tour either at Jaffa Gate, Dung Gate or Mount Zion.

You can take a taxi from there though you might have to walk upwards for about 100 meters (that depends on where we meet the bus).

How can I identify the bus?

The minibus has a print of Amazing Jerusalem at the window and the guide will step out of the bus to meet you.

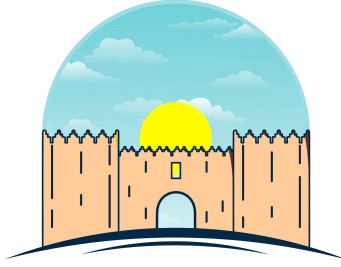

Can I be dropped off at the airport?

Yes, this bus passes Ben Gurion Airport on the way back from Jerusalem to Tel Aviv.

Extra cost is NIS 100 per booking, to be paid to the guide.

Expected time of drop off at the departure hall of Terminal 3 is between 17.45 and 18.30pm.

FAQ - Frequently Asked Questions v02-20230908

Is there a lot of walking, do I need to be fit?

Yes. We use transportation to get from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem. There we walk down the Mount of Olives and at the bottom we use the bus again to bring us up to the Old City. We walk at a relaxed pace but we walk all day, so travelers must have a moderate physical fitness level.

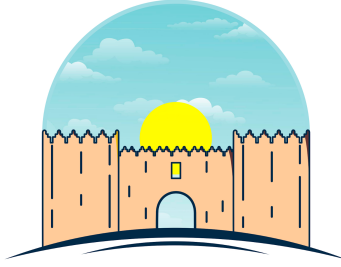

Can we join this tour in Jerusalem?

This tour has pick ups only in Tel Aviv. In Jerusalem you can meet the group at the viewpoint in front of the Seven Arches Hotel. This meeting point is on top of the Mount of Olives, at the entrance to the toilets. There is usually a camel sitting there. You can take a taxi to come to this location and you will receive a Youtube link with the history that the guide speaks about during the bus ride from Tel Aviv. Please take care of traffic, so leave early. If you walk, please realize you have to walk up, which means a slower pace, so leave on time as well.

I am staying outside of Tel Aviv (Bat Yam, Herzliya, Ramat Gan, Raanana)

If you come with a car we suggest you to come to the starting point, which is HaTachana, The Old Train Station. We leave there at 8.50am sharp. There is a large parking place and several cafe's to sit with a coffee before we leave. If you come with a taxi from Herzliya we suggest you come to Leonardo Beach Hotel, HaYarkon Street 156. The bus leaves there at 9.09am

FAQ - Frequently Asked Questions v02-20230908

If you use public transportation we suggest you come to Rothschild Boulevard 22 where the bus leaves at 9.30am. There is a café (Golda) or you can sit inside the (public) lobby of Hotel 22.

The guide will come out of the bus to meet you.

Please be aware that traffic can be very slow in Tel Aviv, leave and arrive early so you will not miss the trip.

Can I leave things in the bus?

Yes, you can.

We use the bus to drive from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem. After walking down the Mount of Olives (Palm Sunday Road), the bus brings us to the other side of the valley to the Old City for a walking tour. Around 5 o'clock you get back to the bus again.

The bus driver will be with his bus all day.

Does this tour cover a visit to the Tomb of Jesus (Holy Sepulcher Church) ?

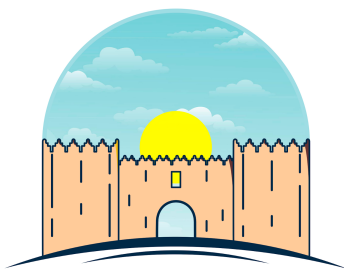

NO, we do not wait in line to visit inside the Tomb.

We visit the church after lunch, which is close to each other.

If you want you can skip lunch and visit the church and stand in line, you have about an hour to 1.15 hours before the group will leave the church.

The group cannot wait, if you are still in line, you have to catch up with the group later or meet them at the departure point.
